Museum Talks

For those who do not have the time to visit a museum but who would still like to discover its contents, an alternative website has been set up: Museumtalks. Whether you speak Swedish, Italian, Greek, Spanish, Russian, Arabic, Chinese or simply French, Dutch or English, you can now discover Brussels' museums in your own language thanks to the short, personal and spontaneous comments on objects or works that appear in the collections of museums in Brussels. You can listen to them on your mobile, your computer or MP3 reader. Enjoy your visit.
